

October 30, 2024, Town of Sheridan Public Hearing at Sheridan Senior Center (210 E. Crofoot)

Attendees: Jan Bowey, Tammy Todd, Curtis Green, Diane Kaatz, Mayor Bob Stump, and Clerk/Treasurer Jennifer Meacham.

Guests: Anne Wentz, Rosanne Hofland and Lynn Hofland.

Mayor Bob Stump called the hearing to order at 6:00 pm, opening with the Pledge of Allegiance.

This hearing is for the first reading of the floodplain ordinance and to answer any questions the public has concerning the ordinance. The second reading will be on November 12, 2024, at 6:00 pm before the next regularly scheduled Town Council Meeting. The Floodplain ordinance will go into effect 30 days after the council approves the last reading. Mayor Bob Stump will be the Administrator and WWC is willing to be our resource engineering firm. There was discussion concerning the bigger problem areas, Flick Lane and Moore Lane. Along with discussion on the 100-year and 500-year floodplain plan, guests and council members looked over the maps.

With no further discussion or questions hearing was adjourned at 6:48pm

Respectfully submitted by:

Jennifer Meacham
